

ACBA
7-12-18

Welcome! Glad to see everyone! Anyone new here tonight? (If so, introductions)

Before we get started, we have some announcements. First, help yourself to pizza and some of Maggie's goodies if you haven't already done so!

This coming Saturday (11am-2pm) is the Ashe County Library's How-To Festival. ACBA will have a table there outside (under a nice shade tree!), and volunteers are welcome! If you'd like to help, let Helen know (336-982-8289 or email - jeffreyb@skybest.com). No one will be turned down :) And if anyone who would like to help has a small folding table to bring, it would be greatly appreciated.

This is the first day of the state meeting in Flat Rock. Is anyone planning to go any time?

Talk about swarms, etc., and the request for queens, etc.

Tonight Jim Miles (7 Stands Farm) is here to talk about queens - whatever you'd like to know. He's been doing this for a while(!)....

ABOUT 8:00, TAKE A BREAK

Jim - finish presentation

Questions?

Door prizes:

1. Queen clip (stainless steel)
2. Queen clip (plastic)
3. Liquid soap (courtesy of Tina Roberts and Orianna Naturals)
4. Two-bar pack of handcrafted soap (courtesy of Tina Roberts and Orianna Naturals)

Next month (August 9) our own Jim Rash will be here to discuss hive to-do chores on a month-by-month basis. We hope you can come!

Thanks for coming! Be sure to leave your name tags on the table....
